05/17/2016	Hearing Officer Order Issued A. Procedural Background 1. On January 11, 2016, the Commission filed a Verified Complaint for Disciplinary Action against Respondent. 2. On February 5, 2016, the Respondent filed his Response with Answers under Protest. 3. On February 17, 2016, the Respondent filed a Motion to Dismiss and accompanying Affidavit Regarding History of Discrimination. 4. On March 12, 2016, the Respondent filed a Petition for an Order for Protection (filed by a person seeking protection). This protection order is premised upon stalking, and is filed within the immediate administrative matter. It is does not appear to be pending or adjudicated before any Indiana state trial court of record. 5. On April 1, 2016, the Respondent filed a Motion for Sanctions against Indiana Attorney Disciplinary Commission Attorney Angie Ordway and for Other Relief. 6. On April 20, 2016, the Respondent filed a Motion to Suspend Proceeding and a Motion to Compel. 7. On April 21, 2016, the parties appeared before the Hearing Officer to conduct a Pre-Hearing. At the Pre-Hearing, discovery and all Pre-Hearing Motions filed to date were discussed. Following this discussion, the Respondent moved to withdraw the Motion to Compel filed on April 20, 2016. The Hearing Officer granted the Respondent's request to withdraw the Motion to Compel. Finally, the parties advised that they were prepared to proceed with the Disciplinary Hearing scheduled for May 12, 2016 at 9:00A.M. (Central). B. Analysis 1. Motions to dismiss are not appropriate in a disciplinary proceeding. Admission and Discipline Rule 23, Section 14(a) provides, in pertinent part, as follows: The rules of pleading and practice in civil cases shall not apply. No motion to dismiss or dilatory motions shall be entertained. Admis. Disc. R. 23(14)(a). 2. A motion to dismiss filed within a disciplinary proceeding is dismissed as procedurally invalid. See Matter of Ogden, 10 N.E. 3d 499, 500 (Ind. 2014); Admis. Disc. R. 23(14)(a). Constitutional challenges to the rule proscribing dilatory motions and motions to dismiss have been found to be without merit. Matter of Briggs, 502 N.E. 2d 879, 888 (Ind. 1987). 3. Other than his Motion to Compel, which he withdrew at the Pre- Hearing, the Respondent's remaining pre-hearing motions (set forth above in Section A) share a common thread in that they are requests to delay or dismiss the Disciplinary Hearing scheduled for May 12, 2016 at 9:00 A.M. (Central). These pre-hearing motions are in contravention to Admission and Discipline Rule 23 and other legal precedent. 4. Respondent's Motion to Dismiss and Other Relief filed February 17, 2016, is denied. 5. Respondent's Petition for an Order for Protection filed March 12, 2016, is denied. 6. Respondent's Motion for Sanctions against Indiana Disciplinary Commission Attorney Angie Ordway and for Other Relief filed April 1, 2016, is denied. 7. Respondent's Motion to Suspend Proceedings filed April 20, 2016, is denied. C. Conclusion 1. For all of the foregoing reasons, the Respondent's pre-hearing motions are denied. The Hearing Officer now reaffirms the Disciplinary Hearing now scheduled (by agreement of the parties) for May 12, 2016 at 9:00 A.M. (Central). The parties are directed to appear for the Disciplinary Hearing. Hon. James R. Ahler, Hearing Officer Serve: Witte, Gordon Michael Serve: Ordway, Angie Lee Serve: Straw, Andrew U.d.
